

North Pole Hotline 2017

The North Pole Hotline is offered free by the Windham Parks and Recreation Department to give Windham preschoolers through 3rd graders an opportunity to talk directly to Santa Claus through a special "hotline" connected to the North Pole.

Child's Name _____ Age _____ M/F _____ Grade _____

Address _____ Telephone _____

School _____ Teacher(Mr, Mrs, Ms) _____

Best night to call: _____ Best time to call: _____

Santa will make every effort to honor your request

Does your child have an extraordinary or extravagant gift he or she is asking for? Santa can develop a conversation to help to discourage that item: _____

Gifts he/she requested and will receive:

Elf on the Shelf's Name:

Is there any time or anything special where "Santa" caught them being "nice" _____

Any Special requests Santa should mention ("Eat all your vegetables, Get to bed early, Pick up your room")

Pets?

If so what _____

Name of Pet _____

Brothers or Sisters you would like Santa to mention? Name? ages, gifts they may be asking for?

Courtesy of Windham Parks & Recreation and special Elves... ..for more information call 892-1905

Please print clearly and make sure the phone number is correct. Please send your form to: Windham Parks and Recreation, Attention: Kris Kringle 8 School Road, Windham, ME 04062 by Friday, December 9, 2016 or fax to 892-1923